CTC ARCHIVE DATA CATALOG

I. Statistical Summary

The CTC Archive houses training data from the three tactical CTCs: the Combat Maneuver Training Center (CMTC), Hohenfels, Germany, the Joint Readiness Training Center (JRTC), Fort Polk, Louisiana, and the National Training Center (NTC), Fort Irwin, California. The Active Archive presently contains more than four fiscal years worth of data from each CTC, consisting of the following data sources:

- After Action Review (AAR) Videocassettes

- Communications Tapes

- Digital Data

 - Files on Diskette

 - Data Cartridges

 - Instrumented Data

- Operations Orders/Plans

- Scenario Documents (background)

- Take Home Packages (THP) (bound)

- Other Supporting Documents

II. Organization of the Catalog

The Archive Data Catalog is organized by CTC, one section for each CTC. Within each section, there is a page for each fiscal year and these pages provide an overview of the data sources held in the Archive for each rotation. The user will note that the data sources provided differ among CTCs; this reflects the diversity of the data collected and the composition of the portion of that data sent to the Archive.
